About PAWC

The Professional Agricultural Workers Conference (PAWC) is a forum committed to a world that values and promotes equal opportunity and equitable access to information and technology for the sustainable development of communities and natural resources. The conference began in 1942, mainly with Tuskegee University and local and state support and participation. It is now national in scope, including representatives from the national land grant community and from the state, federal, and private sectors.

Conference Goals

- Provide an annual forum for the exchange of cutting-edge knowledge and information.
- Initiate and follow-up on programs and policy initiatives.
- Provide information for public decision-makers and stakeholders.
- Recognize and award those professionals who have made outstanding contributions to society.
- Mentor and nurture generations of professionals (agricultural and related sciences).
- Facilitate partnerships, collaborations, networking among corporations, individuals, groups, and organizations.
- Foster professional development and life-long learning opportunities.
- Foster an environment for institutional capacity building for people, organizations, and communities.

Audience

Anyone who is associated with the agricultural, food or business industry, whether a farmer, government representative, land-grant college faculty or staff will want to attend to engage with others in the field and explore the latest developments in agriculture and outreach.
